The Christmas season ends when Epiphany begins on January 6. While the colors for the first and last Sundays of Epiphany are white, the colors on the weeks in between are green. The first Sunday following Epiphany is observed as the Baptism of Our Lord, and the Last Sunday after the Epiphany is known as Transfiguration Sunday. Epiphany's message of Christ's revelation to the Gentiles, along with the season's traditional emphasis on extending Christ's kingdom through missions, using

"Apprenticeship with Jesus"

"It is enough for the disciple to be like his teacher." Matthew 10:25

We often have way too small an understanding of what it means to be a Christian. It is more than intellectual. It is more than behavioral. It is relational. It is purposeful.

One of the first things Jesus does after his baptism is to start calling disciples. The last thing the resurrected Jesus says is to go and make disciples. If discipleship is so key to the Christian life, what exactly is it?

1. Discipleship is intellectual learning, but it is much more than that. Disciples are students who are taught information by a teacher but mastering that information does not make someone a disciple of Jesus.
2. Discipleship is doing what the master says to do but is much more than that. Disciples do what the Rabbi says to do, but following rules does not make someone a disciple of Jesus.
3. Discipleship is a relationship where we live our lives with our Rabbi, inviting him into every aspect of life. It is learning to think like the Rabbi, look like the Rabbi and do what the Rabbi does.

I think a better word for following Jesus than discipleship is apprenticeship. That word seems to do a better job of highlighting the relational aspect and the ultimate purpose of doing what the Rabbi does.

This Lent, you are invited to read the book Practicing the Way by John Mark Comer. In it, he invites the reader into what it means to be apprentices of Jesus. It is about more than learning information and following rules. It is primarily about three things:

1. Being with Jesus
2. Becoming like Jesus
3. Doing as Jesus did

The world needs more than Christians who believe things about Jesus and do things for Jesus. They need apprentices of Jesus who abide with Jesus until they look like him and do what he does...and then help others to do the same.

Are you ready to become his apprentice? If so, join us on the journey of Apprenticeship this Lent.

Wednesday's During Lent (February 18-March 25) – Our Focus will be Apprenticeship with Jesus:

February 18 – Ash Wednesday Service at 7pm
February 25 – Apprenticeship with Jesus (7pm)
March 4 – Being with Jesus (7pm)
March 11 – Becoming like Jesus (7pm)
March 18 – Special guest (7pm)
March 25 – Doing as Jesus did

Book we will be reading during Lent –
Practicing the Way by John Mark Comer
Feel free to order or purchase the book yourself, but if you want the church to order it for you, please sign up in the Fellowship Hall by Sunday, February 8 or let Pastor Mark know you want a book.

It looks like with shipping it will be about $18 a book.

The book is available also on Audible.

Wednesdays before Lent
February 4 – Agape Meal at 6:30 pm – Join us for a meal, fellowship, prayer and Holy Communion.
February 11 – Movie Night with "Bonhoeffer" – Come join us for a meal at 6:00 pm with the movie starting soon after. As we prepare for our focus on Discipleship in Lent, Dietrich Bonhoeffer is a great model and teacher of what genuine Christian discipleship looks like.

Wednesday 4 Lokal - Each Wednesday (unless he is out of town or has another commitment) Pastor Mark goes to the Lokal in Yukon from 4-5 pm for a beer and to develop community. It is a great opportunity to talk and pray with others or just check in with the server to see how they are doing and if they would like prayer for anything. Come join him one of these Wednesdays.
LifeWise Night of Vision – April 9 at the Omni in OKC – Pastor Mark has been working with a group out of Ohio called LifeWise to bring school-day, released-time, parent-permitted Bible classes to Yukon and Mustang Schools. We have hired a Director for Yukon and are working to do so for Mustang. If you would like to learn more about the program (and how you might be able to support the cause), there are two opportunities.

1. View the movie Off School Property on Angel.
2. Attend a Night of Vision with Joel Penton, founder of LifeWise, on Thursday, April 9 at the Omni Hotel in OKC. Pastor Mark is hosting a table, so if you want a chair, let him know. The event is free, but there will be an opportunity to make a donation at the event.
